BIOGRAPHY

Rachel is an associate lawyer in our St. John's office, pursuing a practice with a specific interest in the areas of construction and infrastructure law, through the practice of corporate and commercial law. Rachel began her legal career with Cox & Palmer as a summer student and was called to the Newfoundland and Labrador bar in June 2024.

Before embarking on her legal journey, Rachel gained valuable experience working as an Engineer-in-Training for two years in Newfoundland and Labrador's offshore and subsea industry. This technical background provides her with a unique perspective in her legal practice.

Rachel is committed to community service, having volunteered with numerous organizations throughout her life. During law school, she was a Coordinator with the Pro Bono Dalhousie's High School Co-op Program delivered in conjunction with the Halifax Regional Centre for Education and the Nova Scotia Department of Justice. In her free time, she continues her community involvement as a Big Sister with Big Brothers Big Sisters.

When she's not at the office, she enjoys spending time at home with her tripod cat, Dwight, hiking with her four-legged pal, Leo, or practicing yoga.
