BIOGRAPHY

Audrey is a bilingual Associate working at the Moncton office of Cox & Palmer. She obtained a Bachelor of Business at Université de Moncton in 2021 and with a Juris Doctor in 2024 from the same institution. During her law degree, she was selected to compete at the national Gale Cup Moot competition in Ottawa and completed a judicial internship with the New Brunswick Court of Appeal. After completing her articles with Cox & Palmer, she was called to the New Brunswick Bar in June 2025.

Audrey has a general practice, with a growing focus on corporate and commercial law, litigation and family law matters. She is dedicated to offering high quality legal advice in both English and French and places a strong emphasis on building strong client relationships.

Beyond her professional life, Audrey finds joy in the little things. Raised in the coastal town of Caraquet, she has a love for nautical sports, travelling and cooking.
