BIOGRAPHY

Jessie Michaud is a bilingual Associate lawyer at the Moncton office of Cox & Palmer, where she also completed her articles as a student-at-law. She was called to the New Brunswick Bar in 2025 and maintains a general legal practice, with a growing focus on litigation.

Originally from Edmundston, New Brunswick, Jessie earned her Juris Doctor from the Université de Moncton in 2024. Prior to studying law, she began her post-secondary education in Primary Education at the same university before deciding to pursue her passion for the legal profession.

During law school, Jessie distinguished herself both academically and through extracurricular involvement. She was awarded the Excellence in Advocacy Award in the Moncton-Ottawa Cup moot court competition and also competed in the prestigious Gale Cup Moot. Committed to community service, she volunteered with Pro Bono Students Canada and Legal Aid New Brunswick, and was selected for a judicial internship at the New Brunswick Court of Appeal.

Beyond her legal career, Jessie is deeply involved in rhythmic gymnastics—as a coach, judge, and board member. In her free time, she enjoys reading, yoga, and travelling.
