BIOGRAPHY

Alexander is an Associate in our Saint John office. Prior to being called to the New Brunswick Bar in 2025, Alexander worked with the firm as both an Articled Clerk and Summer Student. Alexander earned a Juris Doctor from the University of New Brunswick Faculty of Law in 2024. He began his legal studies following his graduation from the University of New Brunswick Faculty of Management, where he earned a Bachelor of Business Administration, First Class Honours, with a double major in Economics and Finance.

In his burgeoning career, Alexander has already gained diverse industry experience in multiple sectors, including oil & gas, public utilities, civil service, government, and private legal practice.

Alexander maintains a diverse practice with an emphasis on corporate and commercial law, estates and trusts and real estate. In his time with the firm, Alexander has gained experience in general corporate transactions, commercial financings and secured transactions, mergers and acquisitions, private equity investments, corporate reorganizations, succession and estate planning and residential and commercial real estate.

Outside of the firm, Alexander enjoys entertaining family and friends, writing, photography, cinema, powersports and maintaining his ever-growing collection of automobiles.
