BIOGRAPHY

Anna is a partner in the St. John's office of Cox & Palmer. She was admitted to the Newfoundland and Labrador bar in 2000, after earning an undergraduate degree from Memorial University of Newfoundland (B.A. (English, French) 1995) and her law degree from Dalhousie University (LL.B. 1999). Anna was appointed Kings Counsel in 2024.

Anna has an extensive and dynamic corporate and commercial practice, advising a broad and diverse group of clients ranging from small business startups to large multinational and international corporations. Anna handles commercial financings, commercial real estate, share sales, asset sales, mergers and acquisitions. As an offshoot of this, Anna has developed specialized expertise in the business matters relating to the fishing industry in this province, representing both fishers and lenders as they deal with enterprise sales, financing and regulatory matters. Anna's corporate and commercial clients also benefit from her experience in privacy law compliance and access to information requests, both on the Federal and Provincial level. Anna's clients appreciate not only her sound and practical advice and counsel, but also her solution-focused approach, her timeliness and responsiveness.
