BIOGRAPHY

Marie-Pier Levesque is a fluently bilingual Partner at Cox & Palmer in Moncton. Her primary practice area is corporate & commercial law, which was always part of her trajectory – due to her entrepreneurial parents, and long-time passion for the business sector. Marie-Pier studied law at Université de Moncton where she graduated with a Juris Doctor in 2016.

Marie-Pier's agility, persistence, and industry passion has lent itself to her a growing career and success thus far. She has worked on a wide-range of corporate law transactions with varying levels of complexity. Within her work in asset transactions, share transactions, commercial transactions and corporate reorganizations, Marie-Pier's quiet confidence, makes her highly approachable, and her clients note feeling comfortable and well respected collaborating with her. Marie-Pier strives to adapt to every unique client's situation and focuses on finding tailored, effective solutions.

Outside of the office, Marie-Pier enjoys her downtime traveling, cooking homemade meals, and hiking and enjoying the outdoors with her golden retriever Oliver.

EXPERIENCE

Marie-Pier worked at the Human Rights Commission from 2013-2014. She also completed a judicial internship at the New Brunswick Court of Appeal in her final year of her law degree.
