BIOGRAPHY

Christiana is an Associate in the Charlottetown office of Cox & Palmer. Prior to joining the firm as an Associate, Christiana worked with our firm as a summer student and article clerk.

Christiana obtained her Bachelor of Business Administration degree at the University of Prince Edward Island in 2016, where she was awarded the Yousef Hashmi Award of Excellence for highest aggregate in the graduating Business Administration class. Following her studies at the University of Prince Edward Island, Christiana obtained her Juris Doctor at Dalhousie University's Schulich School of Law in 2019, where she was the recipient of the Schulich Scholarship for academic excellence and community involvement.

Christiana was called to the Prince Edward Island Bar in 2020 and carries on a general legal practice with a growing interest in family law, real estate law, general litigation, insurance defence, and wills and estate planning.

Christiana was raised on a family owned and operated dairy farm in Earnscliffe, Prince Edward Island, where she learned the values of hard work and compassion and applies these values when working with her clients.
